

Dining at Big South Fork

Bacaras Restaurant is a must dining destination in the Big South Fork. Kurt Schlegel, owner and Chef of Bacaras offers some delicious, hand cut steaks, fresh seafood, daily specials and of course his German specialties. Bacaras is truly a unique, memorable dining experience in a cozy, rustic and charming atmosphere, tucked away off a scenic windy road in Jamestown, TN, one of the gateway cities of the Big South Fork. Kurt has been serving loyal clients for over twenty years and is known to offer delicious food with great ambience. This has become an excellent place for a special occasion, first date, anniversary, birthday celebration or for those tired, hungry hikers and horseback riders. The homemade food is plentiful and everything is made from scratch, including the delicious hearty artisan bread that is made on premise. Kurt loves to cook with his fresh herbs and vegetables that he grows seasonally in his garden next to the restaurant. The flavors dance on your tongue. Kurt has a loyal following and folks drive one to two hours to delight in his awesome dishes, in a romantic, delightful setting. Some of the favorites include the 20 ounce Cowboy Steak, hand cut and grilled to perfection. Kurt loves to grill his vegetables which compliment a copious melt in your mouth piece of steak. Another favorite is the fresh grilled salmon, grilled shrimp and other fresh Atlantic seafood served with smashed potatoes, fresh vegetables or rice. October is the time to celebrate German food, German music and a great festive atmosphere. Some of "Annie's" favorites include Wiener schnitzel, sauerbraten, homemade spaetzle (German homemade noodles) and rotkraut (braised red cabbage). German cooking is dear to my ("Annie's") heart, as I spent many childhood summers in Southern Germany with Oma and Opa (Grandma and Grandpa) and savored the German cooking. Bacaras also offers a scrumptious Sunday brunch from 11:00 – 3:00 PM served family style and always offers slow cooked prime rib, and two other meats that might include chicken, pork and salmon or other type of fish. This is accompanied by potatoes, rice and fresh vegetables. Kurt and his fine team of servers love to make your trip to Bacaras a memorable one and love to offer great service, awesome hospitality and a delectable meal. Kurt recommends reservations, however they are not required. Bacaras is open Thursday through Saturday from 4:00 PM - until the last guest is served and Sunday Brunch from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Reservations can be made by phoning Bacaras at 931-879-7121. Another favorite in the Big South Fork is Grey Gables Bed & Breakfast owned and operated by innkeeper Linda Brooks-Jones. Linda is an awesome lady and is passionate about offering a wonderful experience to her guests that come to delight in her cooking. Linda offers a hearty, country home cooked breakfast for her overnight guests, but also offers dinners by reservation to those wishing to experience this delightful Victorian bed and breakfast and wonderful meals. Linda is known throughout the country for her love of Rugby, and her passion for keeping the history and memories alive through her cookbooks. Most of her recipes in the cookbooks are intertwined in her daily meals at Grey Gables. Linda also loves to offer a proper tea on Wednesday afternoons and has themed events throughout the year. Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Eve are quite special and fill up very quickly. Let Linda and her daughter Tiffany and granddaughter Kelly (and the rest of the family) spoil you with wonderful down home cooking, memorable meals and a wonderful experience in a historic town. Visit Grey Gables on line www.rugbyn.com or phone Linda to plan that special meal, family event or surprise weekend getaway for your loved one. Bon Appetit!
